That's the Sp. Serv. Showdown of the Week. If you have any idle moments (on your own time!), salvage your doldrums for some of the Glee Issue.

NIP AND TUCK:-- WE AWAIT THE DECISION! WILL THE UNIT M. HQ. "WHEELS" OR THE UNIT M. COMPLEMENT KINGS CLINCH THE TITLE AS THE STA. SOFTBALL CHAMPIONS. LAST WEEK, IT WAS NIP & TUCK. NIP HELD IT'S OWN WITH TUCK, & THE SERIES IS KNOTTED AT 3-ALL. THE FINAL & DECIDING GO IS SCHEDULED FOR THIS MONDAY, & IT SHOULD BE A HELL-BENDER OF A GAME!

TRAILERS:-- The Reel Round-Up, this week, at the Sta. Theatre & in town, is really in focus. According to our "Variety" trade journal, "THE ADVENTURES OF MARK TWAIN" is not booked for general release in the States until July 22. For the blood-and-thunder fans, "BUFFALO BILL" makes like Joel McCrea, at the Embassy. (The companion feature is "She's For Me", but that doesn't mean that our Six-shooter Bill was a panty-waist!) "THE CROSS OF LORRAINE" at the Central & "PHANTOM LADY" at the Sta. Make-Believe Stall-Room, also rate your peek.

THERE MUST BE MORE THAT YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW ABOUT WHAT'S GOIN' ON! SPECIAL SERV HAS FIGGERED OUT THAT THE BEST WAY FOR YOU TO FIND OUT, IS TO SEE THE OTHER ST.

"HOLIDAYS AT HOME"

EVERY YEAR ABOUT THIS TIME SINCE THE FUSS BEGAN, THE UK FOLKS HAVE BEEN ENCOURAGED TO HAVE FUN IN THEIR OWN BACK-YARDS, INSTEAD OF CLUTTERING THE CHOO-CHOO & OTHER FACILITIES AFTER A HARD YEAR IN THE FACTORY, MILL, OFFICE & ON THE LAND. THEY HAVE A LOCAL FROLIC CALLED "HOLIDAYS AT HOME". A PROGRAM OF EVENTS IS PLANNED FOR THIS WEEK AS PART OF IT, WE ARE UNLOADING OUR STA. ALL-STAR SOFTBALL (or maybe, Baseball) TEAM, ON SOME S.V.ICE TEAM, NEXT FRI. EVE., IN BRAINTREE. WHEN THE POPULATION TURNS OUT TO SEE THE EXHIBITION OF ONE OF THE PET AMERICAN PASTIMES, WE WILL PROBABLY EXPLORE THE FINE POINTS OF THE GAME BY SAYING, "That ain't Cricket!"

TAKE IT FROM HIM!:- This Tuesday, 2nd Lt. DAVID G. FINLOW, an authority on British ground force tactical operations, will be here to hold forth on the Normandy campaign, & hazard convictions about why & when the Axis will throw in the towel. Our galivanting Anglo-American Good Will delegation heard the Lt., last Wed. nite, at a Colchester Sta., & voted him "right on".

HOSPITALITY HIGHLIGHTS:

It shines brightly at the FINCHINGFIELD TOWN HALL, on Tues. & Thurs. nites, from 1930-2230. Its Open House by the Finchfield British Welcome Cl. Snacks & recreation in the hall & from the heart of one of the most picturesque & typical towns in England.

WHO SHOULD KNOW BETTER:

YOUR ENLISTED MEN'S COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES SAY THAT AFTER OUR ORGANIZED SOFTBALL COMPETITION IS COMPLETED, YOU WOULD LIKE TO HAVE A STATION VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT, WITH ALL UNITS ENTERING TEAMS, IN COMPLIANCE WITH YOUR REQUEST, WE'LL DO IT.

"ITS NEWS TO ME!"

THAT'S WHAT ONE CHARACTER CLAIMED, WHEN HE SAW ONE OF THE NEW "BUY A BOND, NOT A BABE!" CIRCULARS, ON OUR BULLETIN BOARD. THIS PARTICULAR MISFIT REFERRED OF COURSE TO THE EXTRA SPECIAL G.I. WAR BONDS, NOW AVAILABLE AT $7.50 A THROW, IF YOU CAN'T BUY THE WHOLE GOLD MINE, DON'T FAIL TO STOCK UP ON THESE NUGGETS. LAY IT ON THE LINE AT YOUR ORDERLY ROOM.
